

STUDENT COURSE OF ACTION FOR E-TIME

Students receive printout of current grades at end of 3rd period

Bell rings for E-Time passing period

Abuse of privileges or failure to follow procedures will result in Administrative Fun Time (ie. time with the principals).

Students look over grades and determine what course of action they need to take (must hold onto printout)

All passing grades (bottom right-hand corner of report is empty)

Any D's, F's, or I's ("Deficient Grades" are printed in bottom right-hand corner of report)

Once a student has chosen an enrichment option, they must stay there

Students proceed to enrichment option of their choice and show grade printout at door

Students choose a deficient grade to work on and proceed to the room of that teacher

Student should be settled in a remediation room before the bell rings

Teacher is there: Students work on missing assignments or missed concepts

Teacher is not there or room is full

If students finish work before E-Time has ended

Students choose another deficient grade to work on and proceed to that room

Students have no other deficient grades

Students remain in classroom quietly and finds something else to work on

Students cause disruptions and are sent to Administrative Fun Time

Students proceed to Study Hall Remediation
