Landmark Kickball

-- by Corey Gronemnan
B.C. Forbs one said:
Your success depends
on you.
Your happiness depends
on you.
You have to steer your own course.

You have to shape your own fortune.
You have to educate yourself.
You have to do your own thinking.
You have to live with your own conscience.
Your mind is yours and can be used only by you.
You come into this world alone.
You got to the grave alone.
You are alone with your inner thoughts during the journey between.
You make your own decisions.
You must abide by the consequences of your acts.

"I cannot make you well unless you make yourself well," an eminent doctor often tells his patients.

You alone can regulate your habits and make or unmake your health.

You alone can assimilate things mental and thing material.

Said a Brooklyn preacher, offering his parishioners communion one Sunday: "I cannot give you the blessings and the benefits of this holy feast.

You must appropriate them for yourselves. The banquet is spread; help yourself freely.

"You may be invited to a feast where the table is laden with the choicest foods, but unless you appropriate and assimilate them, they can do you no good. JOE continued page 2

Landmark high school hosted their annual kickball tournament at the Spanish Fork ball parks to help students unify and compete against each other for breakfast.

The teams were formed by the student council using their advisory classes and the matches were selected randomly and played four games were a time.

After hours of playing in the tournament the school went to a bbque for lunch a minutes walk away from the ball parks where the students enjoyed hamburgers that were cooked by the teachers.

After the bbque the tournament matches resumed, and soon there after the championship game was played between Brian's, Chaside's, and Sue's advisories vs Sterling's and Kristie's advisories. The match was called after 30 minutes, to allow time for the students to get back to school to catch the bus. The game ended with a 2-2 tie and both will get the prize. Way to go one and all.

So it is with this holy feast. You must appropriate its blessings. I cannot infuse them into you.”

You have to do your own assimilation all through life.
You have to be taught by a teacher, but you have to imbibe the knowledge. He cannot transfuse it into your brain.
You alone can control your mind cells and your brain cells.
You may have spread before you the wisdom of the ages, but unless you assimilate it you derive not benefit from it; no one can force it into your cranium.

You alone can move your own legs.
You alone can move your own arms.
You alone can utilize your own hands.
You alone can control your own muscles.
You must stand on your feet, physically and metaphorically.
You must take your own steps.
Your parents cannot enter into your skin, take control of your mental and physical machinery, and make something of you.
You cannot fight your son's battles; that he must do for himself.

You have to be captain of your own destiny.
You have to see through your own eyes.
You have to use your own ears.
You have to master your own faculties.
You have to solve your own problems.
You have to form your own ideals.
You have to create your own ideas.
You must choose your own speech.
You must govern your own tongue.
Your real life is your thoughts.
Your thoughts are your own making.
Your character is your own handiwork.

You alone can select the materials that go into it.
You alone can reject what it not fit to go into it.
You are the creator of your own personality.
You can be disgraced by no man's hand but your own.
You can be elevated and sustained by no man but yourself.
You have to write your own record.
You have to build your own monument- or dig your own pit.

Which are you doing?

B.C. Forbes is one of the most successful men in the world. He also invented the fortune 500. Joe wanted this article to be in Joe's Corner because it just goes to show that an ordinary man who was an immigrant to America with nothing, practically dirt poor, worked his way up to be one of the most successful men in the world. Joe would like to see that in all of us, he would like and believes that we all can be great and successful.

Who Is The “Red Faced” Teacher at Landmark High School?

-- by Shataya Trujillo

The “Red Faced” teacher here at Landmark High School, and most loved teacher of all is Patrick Hogle.

Patrick has worked here at LHS for six years. He teaches Biology and Life Strategies. He loves working at LHS, he loves working with the students he cares about his students like they are his own.

Patrick loves to make the newer student to the school feel more comfortable and more at home here. He enjoys working with the rest of the staff as well, he loves the school and does not want to go anywhere else!

When Patrick is not at school his favorite thing to do is play with his children and travel with his wife and kids. Besides spending time with his family he enjoys fishing, hunting, and hiking. And he especially likes to be nice to his wife! We love having Patrick here at Landmark High and hope he stays here forever!

A few years ago while doing his favorite past time Patrick developed a mild case of the “West Nile” virus, when he got bitten by a mosquito while hunting ducks on the Great Salt Lake. We are so glad that we did not lose him. Way to go Patrick keep up the hard work!

ARIES

March 21-April 19

You have a job in front of you that you're not exactly dying to dig into. But the longer you delay doing the work that is necessary, the bigger your challenges will become. So try to get started on your work as soon as you can, today. If you just dive right in and work steadily to get things over with, you will lessen the amount of stress in your day and keep things from getting any more complicated. Skip lunch if you have to -- the more you do today, the less you will have to do tomorrow.

TAURUS

April 20-May 20

Relaxation is much more important than progress right now in your life, so ease off the gas pedal for a while! Take the more inviting, meandering road to wherever you need to go today and don't you dare look at your watch! Sure, taking the scenic route will probably add time to your journey, but what you will be seeing will be so delightful that slow and leisurely will be the perfect pace. It's a great day for conversations that last three hours long and go nowhere.

GEMINI

May 21-June 21

The simplest things will give you the biggest charge, today -- from making sure that all your bills are paid to running basic errands and taking out the trash, you're going to get immense pleasure out of tasks that allow you to turn your mind away from the dramas swirling around you. Distraction is a very useful way of getting through a tough day. So if you've had things weighing heavy on your mind lately, go do the laundry! You'll end up whistling and happy in no time.

CANCER

June 22-July 22

It's all about open and free communication, today. You've got to say what you feel as soon as you feel it! It's time to liberate your mind and free yourself to say whatever comes to mind at the moment it pops up in your brain. You're open to the fact that once or twice you might say something silly. You might stick your foot in your mouth, but so what? That's a small price to pay for feeling free and open with the people you'll be dealing with, today. Embarrassment can bring people closer.

LEO

July 23-August 22

Being shy and introverted is one thing, but hiding what you have to offer is quite another! Putting up a wall between yourself and the rest of the world is a poor way of showing the world what you can give -- especially if you are looking to create a romantic connection. Today, take a bigger risk. Reveal your inner thoughts to someone you don't know very well. You won't be disappointed by the effect you have on them. You are a lot more intriguing than you realize.

VIRGO

August 23-September 22

Your gut will tell you where you need to point your energies next. So be ready to move today -- if you suddenly get an urge to tidy up the house, then block out the rest of your day to do it. And if you suddenly get an urge to bake some cookies, head right out to the market and pick up whatever ingredients you need. It might not be convenient to act so spontaneously today, but the more you can do it, the more you will feel a sense of power over your own life.

LIBRA

September 23-October 22

Someone from your past will be coming back on the scene very soon -- no matter how much you are dreading the reunion, you need to put on a brave face! They have a certain amount of influence over your life right now, and it will definitely be in your best interest to keep them on your side. So let go of any and all grudges and try to see the good in them -- you know it's there! But more importantly, make sure that they only see the good in you. The effort will be worth it.

SCORPIO

October 23 - November 21

An exciting new opportunity will be coming your way, today -- but you are going to have meet it half-way, and the journey could be a strange one. You've usually done a lot of planning before making any big moves, but there will be no time for that today! What you need is flexibility, spontaneity, and a whole lot of bravado! You'll be required to put on a bit of a performance, although it will be a role you were born to play. You'll have a blast fooling someone in good fun.

SAGITTARIUS

November 22-December 21

Give someone a helping hand today, and you'll actually be helping yourself too! Remember this when you feel like you're too busy to assist anyone. Don't rush ahead when details need to be covered -- never mind the fact that they aren't your details! Slow down and realize that by taking time to connect with another human being, you are connecting with the humanity inside of yourself. Even giving someone a ride is a chance to remind yourself how great you are.

CAPRICORN

December 22-January 19

Today, you need to challenge yourself to step back from the project you've been working on so diligently. It will do you some good to take a break from all of the details and get grounded in your personal life again. Someone you care about is missing you like crazy, and one ten minute phone call isn't going to put you off your schedule. So give them a call -- or just send them an email. Right now they really need to know you haven't forgotten about them!

AQUARIUS

January 20-February 18

You need to stop thinking so hard about the things you don't like about your life! You might think that the more brain power you devote to your problems, the faster you will solve them, but that isn't always the case. Step back and just watch how things progress without your interference. Take care when you're dealing with other people, too -- they might even be able to fix the problem for you if you just let them. Improving your situation isn't always something you have the power to do.

PISCES

February 19-March 20

Today you'll be put into the position where you'll need to tell someone some news that they won't like hearing. But you have to remember that sometimes, helping others can be a thankless job. Deliver the news with a gentle touch, and keep what you say short, simple and straight to the point. They won't shoot you as the messenger, but they might need your shoulder to cry on or your ear to hear them. Be generous with your time and honest with your support.
